Sam,
congratulations on all the awards you've won this year. Remember the time we went to Vassar, and to Flint for speech class. We had lots of fun, and saw some pretty girls. Your friend always

To Mr. Robert L. Blue, our beloved principal, the staff of Vista Visions-1961 dedicates this yearbook. Vista Visions-1961, in pictorial style, records our school year which was guided by Mr. Blue. We dedicate this book to him in grateful appreciation for his steadfast, unselfish devotion to students and teachers. He has inspired us in difficult times and rejoiced with us in our successful achievements.

CHRISTMAS PAGEANT

CHRISTMAS BY CANDLELIGHT

The students of Mrs. Fisher's homeroom and the Choir worked very hard and long to put on a wonderful and successful play. Mrs. Fisher directed the play while Mrs. McDonald led the choir.

A scene from the play, "Christmas by Candlelight." The wise men and the shepherds have come to pay tribute to the baby Jesus.

The following pages show students participating in extra-curricular activities.

Saginaw Steering Gear Division and its neighbor, Buena Vista High School, have many things in common. One of these is the desire to explore the future, to try new techniques, and to build for a brighter tomorrow.

The men and women of Saginaw Steering Gear are proud to be known as "good neighbors" in the Buena Vista Community.

Members of Mrs. H. A. Karpicke's Journalism Class inspect one of the Saginaw Steering Gear experimental "Aero-Control Steering" cars of the future.

Hi Honey,

Tell me see you've got this page all saved for me. Thanks loads. Now I'll have to see if I can fill it all. I don't know though cause I don't feel very long winded.

Let's see now, it's been almost two years now that we've been going together. Almost every minute of it has been a pleasure. I say almost because of the little and big quarrels we've had. Certainly they were not pleasurable. But I guess everyone has those either sooner or later. It isn't was later though because the first year we went together, we hardly said a cross word to one another. Oh well, I guess we've changed a little, huh?

As I look back over the past year I think that the most outstanding times we've shared are those little chit chats that we have quite frequently downstairs. They were sure fun.

It used to be that once in a great while you'd stop over to my house. Now it's a known fact that every Sunday night you are invited to my house for lunch and I just love it (and you of course).

This year things are changing a little for we might not go to Institute. In a way I wish we would cause after all that's where I first dated you and it's a very important place, naturally.

It seems that almost everywhere we go we usually end up doubling with Jack and Ruth. I like this and I'm glad that we can have close Christian friends which we can go around with.

Tell believe it or not I'm running out of room but I would like to say that those past (almost) 2 years have been 2 of the best years of my life and I hope that in the near and far future that we will have just as much fun or more than the past 2.

Love Always
